

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

SECTION 191

as amended by section 10 of the Planning and Compensation Act 1991

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING GENERAL DEVELOPMENT ORDER 1988

ARTICLE 26A

CERTIFICATE OF LAWFUL USE OR DEVELOPMENT

The Dacorum Borough Council hereby certify that on 6 January 1995 the use described in the First Schedule hereto in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule hereto and edged red on the plan attached to this certificate (excluding the areas coloured white on that plan) was lawful within the meaning of section 191 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended), for the following reasons:

The land edged red on the plan attached to this Certificate (excluding the areas coloured white on that plan) and specified in the Second Schedule hereto has been used to the extent specified in the First Schedule hereto for a period of more than ten years.

Signed:

Director of Planning

On behalf of Dacorum Borough Council

Notes

1. This certificate is issued solely for the purpose of section 191 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).
2. It certifies that the use specified in the First Schedule taking place on the land described in the Second Schedule was lawful, on the specified date and, thus, was not liable to enforcement action under section 172 of the 1990 Act on that date.
3. This certificate applies only to the extent of the use described in the First Schedule and to the land specified in the Second Schedule and identified on the attached plan. Any use which is materially different from that described or which relates to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.
4. The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the proviso in section 192(4) of the 1990 Act, as amended, which states that the lawfulness of a described use or operation is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations begun, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.
