Dear Sir

Your application dated 10 January 1990 has been considered under the provisions of s.53 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, to determine whether planning permission is required in respect of conversion of a garage to a dining room, and associated alterations at 4 Old Mill Gardens, Berkhamsted.

You are hereby given notice that the proposals set out therein ~~do~~ not constitute development within the meaning of the said Act, ~~and therefore~~ but

- (a) ~~planning permission must be obtained before any such proposals can be carried out~~
- (b) do not require the permission of the local planning authority.

The grounds for this determination are as follows:

The conversion of a garage to a dining room is not development, but the associated alterations are development, under s.22 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971. However, planning permission is not required because the proposed works will fall within the limits of permitted development under Class A of part 1 Schedule 2 to Article 3 of the Town and Country Planning General Development Order 1988.

Dated 9.3.90

Yours faithfully

Chief Planning Officer
