Dear Sir,

Your application dated 10th February 1982 has been considered under the provisions of Section 53 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971, to determine whether planning permission is required in respect of stables and internal alterations to dwelling at:

Carronade,

St. Gaddenden, Herts.

You are hereby given notice that the proposals set out therein ~~do~~ constitute development within the meaning of the said Act, and therefore

(a) planning permission must be obtained before any such proposals can be carried out

~~proposals require the permission of the local planning authority~~

The grounds for this determination are as follows:

In the opinion of the local planning authority, the proposed building constitutes development which is not requisite for the use of the land on which it is to be built for the purposes of agriculture, and the proposal therefore falls outside the limitations contained in Class VI of Schedule 1 to the Town and Country Planning (General Development Order 1977 as amended.

Dated 2nd April 1982 Yours faithfully,

(Chief Planning Officer)
