DEAR SIR,

Your application under the provisions of Section 53 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 dated 18th February 1977 to determine whether planning permission is required in respect of Change of use from residential to office, 'Drumcairn' Graemesdyke Road, Berkhamsted, Herts.

has been duly considered, and you are hereby given notice that the proposals set out therein ~~do~~/do not constitute development within the meaning of the said Act, and therefore -

- (a) ~~planning permission must be obtained before any such proposals can be carried out~~
- (b) do not require the permission of the Local Planning Authority.

The grounds for this determination are as follows:

The extent of the activity as described would not materially change the predominant use of the property as a private dwelling.

This determination is made on the facts as submitted and would not necessarily apply should there be any extension of such a use or change in the circumstances and activities described.

Yours faithfully,

Director of Technical Services.
