TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS, 1971 and 1972

THE DISTRICT COUNCIL OF DACORUM
IN THE COUNTY OF HERTFORD

To Barclays Bank Limited, 54 Lombard Street, London, EC3P 3AH.

Agent: Barclays Bank Ltd. Property Division, Chief Office, 65 Southwark Street, London SE1 0NU.

Single storey extension at rear and car parking.
at 35 Wood Lane End, Hemel Hempstead.

Brief description and location of proposed development.

In pursuance of their powers under the above-mentioned Acts and the Orders and Regulations for the time being in force thereunder, the Council hereby permit the development proposed by you in your application dated 7th March, 1975 and received with sufficient particulars on 11th March, 1975 and shown on the plan(s) accompanying such application, subject to the following conditions:-

- (1) The development to which this permission relates shall be begun within a period of 5 years, commencing on the date of this notice.
(2) The materials used externally shall match those on the existing building of which this development shall form a part.
(3) No work shall be started until details of the treatment of the rear boundary shall have been submitted to and approved by the Local Planning Authority.
(4) The development hereby permitted shall not be brought into use until the enclosure along the rear boundary shall have been provided as approved by the Local Planning Authority and the car parking arrangements shown on Plan 364/75D shall have been provided.
(5) The items referred to in Condition 4 shall be maintained at all times after first occupation to the reasonable satisfaction of the Local Planning Authority.

The reasons for the Council's decision to grant permission for the development subject to the above conditions are:—

(1) To comply with the requirements of Section 41 of the Town & Country Planning Act, 1971.

(2) To ensure the appearance of the development is satisfactory.

(3), (4) & (5).

To ensure the proper development of the site.

Director of Technical Services.
Designation .....

NOTE

(2) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, Whitehall, London, S.W.1.) The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order.

(3) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Common Council, or on the Council of the county borough, London borough or county district in which the land is situated, as the case may be, a purchase notice requiring that council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.

(4) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.
