TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS, 1971 and 1972

Other Ref. No. 374/75D

THE DISTRICT COUNCIL OF DACORUM
IN THE COUNTY OF HERTFORD

To Tring Engineering Ltd., 50, Bloomsbury Street, London WC1B 3OT.
Agent: Gordon Williams Esq., Architect, 9, Grove Road, Billericay, Essex.

Demolish existing buildings and build new workshop at RMR Engineering, Brook Street, Tring, Herts.

Brief description and location of proposed development.

In pursuance of their powers under the above-mentioned Acts and the Orders and Regulations for the time being in force thereunder, the Council hereby permit the development proposed by you in your application dated 11th March, 1975 and received with sufficient particulars on 13th March, 1975 and shown on the plan(s) accompanying such application, subject to the following conditions:-

- (1) The development to which this permission relates shall be begun within a period of five years commencing on the date of this notice.
(2) No work shall be started until a comprehensive scheme of landscaping for the site shall have been submitted to, and approved by the local planning authority.
(3) No work shall be started on the development hereby permitted until (a) further details of the treatment of the new access, including sight lines and (b) materials to be used externally (including a dark coloured treatment for the roof cladding) shall have been submitted to, and approved by, the local planning authority.
(4) There shall be no obstruction more than 1 metre high within the visibility sight lines approved in accordance with condition 3a hereof.
(5) The operations carried out in the new workshop shall be such that the level of noise at the site boundaries shall not exceed 50dB(A) between the hours of 0.600 and 23.59 or 40dii(a) between the hours of 23.59 and 0.600.

The reasons for the Council's decision to grant permission for the development subject to the above conditions are:—

- (1) To comply with the requirements of Section 41 of the Town & Country Planning Act, 1971.
- (2) To maintain and enhance the visual amenity of the area.
- (3) To ensure the proper development of the site and satisfactory appearance of the building.
- (4) In the interests of road safety.
- (5) To safeguard the amenities of occupants of nearby dwellings.

NOTE

(1) If the applicant wishes to have an explanation of the reasons for this decision it will be given on request and a meeting arranged if necessary.

(2) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, Whitehall, London, S.W.1.) The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order.

(3) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Common Council, or on the Council of the county borough, London borough or county district in which the land is situated, as the case may be, a purchase notice requiring that council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.

(4) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.
