Brief
description and location of proposed development.

In pursuance of their powers under the above-mentioned Acts and the Orders and Regulations for the time being in force thereunder, the Council hereby permit the development proposed by you in your application dated 8th April, 1975 and received with sufficient particulars on 9th April, 1975 and shown on the plan(s) accompanying such application, subject to the following conditions:-

~~1. The development to which this permission relates shall be begun within a period of 12 months commencing on the date of this notice.~~

- (1) This permission shall be for a limited period expiring on 31st December 1976 on or before the expiration of which period the caravan shall be removed unless the Local Planning Authority shall previously have approved the continuance of its use for a further period.
- (2) This permission shall enure for the benefit of the applicant only and for no other person.

The reasons for the Council's decision to grant permission for the development subject to the above conditions are:—

~~(1) To comply with the requirements of Section 41 of the Town & Country Planning Act, 1971.~~

- (1) To enable the Local Planning Authority to review the position at the end of that period.
- (2) The proposed development is contrary to the policy of the Local Planning Authority for the area and permission is only granted having regard to the particular needs and circumstances of the applicant.

Dated.....Second.....day of.....June.....1975.....

Signed.....
Director of Technical Designation.....Services.....

NOTE

(1) If the applicant wishes to have an explanation of the reasons for this decision it will be given on request and a meeting arranged if necessary.

(2) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, Whitehall, London, S.W.1.) The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order.

(3) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Common Council, or on the Council of the county borough, London borough or county district in which the land is situated, as the case may be, a purchase notice requiring that council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.

(4) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.

In pursuance of their delegated powers under the above-mentioned Act and the Orders and Regulations for the time being in force thereunder, the Council on behalf of the Local Planning Authority hereby permit the development proposed by you in your application dated ... 9th February, 1971.
and received with sufficient particulars on 10th February, 1971.
and shewn on the plan(s) accompanying such application, subject to the following conditions:—

- (1) The development to which this permission relates shall be begun within a period of five years commencing on the date of this notice.
2. This permission shall be limited for a period expiring 31st December 1973, on or before the expiration of which period the caravan shall be removed unless the local planning authority shall previously have approved the continuance of its use for a further period.
3. This permission shall enure for the benefit of the applicant only and for no other person.

The reasons for the Council's decision to grant permission for the development subject to the above conditions are:—

- (1) To comply with the requirements of Section 65 of the Town & Country Planning Act, 1968.
2. To enable the local planning authority to review the position at the end of that period and take into account the possible effect of the use on the amenities of the locality.
3. The proposed development is contrary to the policy of the local planning authority for the area and permission is only granted having regard to the particular needs and circumstances of the applicant.

NOTE

(1) If the applicant wishes to have an explanation of the reasons for this decision it will be given on request and a meeting arranged if necessary.

(2) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Minister of Housing and Local Government, in accordance with section 23 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1962, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Minister of Housing and Local Government, Whitehall, London, S.W.1.) The Minister has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Minister is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act 1965 and section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(3) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Minister of Housing and Local Government and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Common Council, or on the Council of the county borough, London borough or county district in which the land is situated, as the case may be, a purchase notice requiring that council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VIII of the Town and Country Planning Act 1962 (as amended by the Town and Country Planning Act 1968).

(4) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Minister on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in section 123 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1962.
