 Notice under Article 7(2)

To:

Date: 24.3.77

A. I. Hurris Esq.
 122, Anchor Lane
 Hemel Hempstead
 Herts.

Location and proposed development. Section 53 determination as to whether planning permission is required for the erection of a glass conservatory at 122, Anchor Lane Hemel Hempstead.

Your application dated 21.3.77 was received on 23.3.77.

Examination of the form of application and accompanying plans and documents to ascertain whether your application complies with the statutory requirements has not been completed.

If on further examination, it is found that the application is invalid for failure to comply with such requirements (or for any other reason) a further communication will be sent to you as soon as possible.

If by 22.5.77 you have not received notification that your application is invalid and the authority dealing with your application have not given you notice of their decision (and you have not agreed with them in writing that the period within which their decision shall be given may be extended) you may appeal to the Secretary of State in accordance with Sections 36 and 37 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 by notice sent within six months from that date (unless the application has already been referred by this authority to the Secretary of State for the Environment). Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Department of the Environment.
