..... Home Farm House,
..... Little Gaddesden, Berkhamsted, Herts.

Dear Sir,

Your application dated 26th March 1980 has been considered under the provisions of Section 53 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971, to determine whether planning permission is required in respect of

- 1) Use of outbuilding as an office
- 2) Additional Assistance in study/office at Home Farm House, Little Gaddesden.

You are hereby given notice that the proposals set out therein ~~do~~ ^{do not} constitute development within the meaning of the said Act, and therefore ~~you~~

(a) planning permission must be obtained before any such proposals can be carried out

~~(b) do not require the permission of the Local Planning Authority~~

The grounds for this determination are as follows:

- 1) The use of either of the existing outbuildings (or part) marked B & C respectively on the submitted site plan as offices would amount to development under S22 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 and would require planning permission.
- 2) The employment of staff in connection with the applicants business at Home Farm House would constitute a material change of use of part of the dwelling and would require planning permission being development under Section 22 of the said Act.

(Relevant forms DC 1 attached for your convenience)

Dated 2nd May 1980

Yours faithfully,

.....
Director of Technical Services.
