	Town Planning Ref. No 4/0695/90
TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS, 1971 and	972 Other Ref. No
	en e
THE DISTRICT COUNCIL OF DACORUM	region de la companya de la company La companya de la companya de
IN THE COUNTY OF HERTFORD
To The Vicar of Churchwardens St John the Baptist Church c/o Mr M Sword The Lane House , Gaddesden Lane Hemel Hempstead	Mrs P J Ward Chapel Farm Whipsnade Dunstáble
Lychgate
at$t.John.the.Baptist.Church,.Great.Gad	description
In pursuance of their powers under the above-mentioned being in force thereunder, the Council hereby permit the deflated 27 April 1990	-
and received with sufficient particulars on
 The development to which this permission relate commencing on the date of this notice. 	•
 (2) The development hereby permitted materials as stated on Plan 8901/may be agreed in writing with the (3) The oak frame of the hereby permit constructed using traditional pega 	or such other materials as local planning authority. Ited development shall be
(4) The soffit within the hereby perm diagonally boarded.	itted lychgate shall be

The reasons for the Council's decision to grant permission for the development subject to the above conditions are:—

- (1) To comply with the requirements of Section 41 of the Town & Country Planning Act, 1971.
- (2) To ensure satisfactory appearance.
 - (3) To ensure a satisfactory development.
 - (4) To ensure satisfactory appearance.

Theory	day of July	4 000
 Third	day of JULY	1 9.7 U

Signed...ChinRoman

Designation DIRECTOR OF PLANNING

NOTE

(1) If the applicant wishes to have an explanation of the reasons for this decision it will be given on request and a meeting arranged if necessary.

(2) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this Environment, in accordance with section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this Environment, in accordance with section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this Environment, in accordance with section 36 of the Town and Country Planning of State for the Environment, Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.) The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not London, S.W.1.) The Secretary of State has power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order.

(3) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its by the Secretary of State and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existenced and the country beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existenced and the country beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existenced and the country beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been existenced and the capable of reasonab the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.

(4) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.