18th July 1980

Dear Sirs,

Proposed extensions to house,
Scatterdells Lane, Chipperfield

I refer to the above application and the telephone conversations with my assistant, Mrs. Middleweek on 23rd May and 13th June 1980, with regard to the apparent error in the address of the property, and also the incorrect layout and siting of the house.

As no revised documents have been received, and the statutory period for the determination of the application has now expired, I have no alternative but to regard the proposal as a deemed refusal.

A letter of acknowledgement (form DCLA36) was sent to you on 19th May 1980, and I would draw your attention to the last paragraph relating to your rights of appeal to the Secretary of State.

However, this would not prejudice your submitting a fresh application should you wish to do so.

Yours faithfully,

 Director of Technical Services
