Dear Sir,

Your application dated 18th June 1984 has been considered under the provisions of Section 53 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971, to determine whether planning permission is required in respect of two storey extension and double garage at:

Feveralls Farm,

You are hereby given notice that the proposals set out therein ~~do~~
~~do not~~ constitute development within the meaning of the said Act, ~~and therefore~~ ~~but~~

(a) planning permission must be obtained before any such proposals
can be carried out

~~(b) do not require the permission of the local planning authority.~~

The grounds for this determination are as follows:

The building proposed together with other extensions which have been carried out since 1948 will be in excess of the limits permitted under Class 1 of Schedule 1 to Article 3 of the Town and Country Planning General Development Orders 1977-83.
