Dear Sir,

I refer to your letter about your barn and would advise you that having regard to the legal wording of Section 53 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 and the fact that the building has already been erected, it is not possible for this Council now to give you a formal decision.

It would appear, however, that if the building is used solely for agricultural purposes in connection with your registered small-holding which exceeds 1 acre, this Council is unlikely to take any further action.

Yours faithfully,

Director of Technical Services
