--	--

In pursuance of their powers under the above-mentioned Acts and the Orders and Regulations for the time being in force thereunder, the Council hereby permit the development proposed by you in your application dated ..... 24.10.85 .....
and received with sufficient particulars on ..... 28.10.85 (Amended 6/12/85) ..... and shown on the plan(s) accompanying such application, subject to the following conditions:—

- (1) The development to which this permission relates shall be begun within a period of . . . 5 . . . years commencing on the date of this notice.
- (2) No work shall be started on the development hereby permitted until details of materials to be used externally shall have been submitted to and approved by the local planning authority and the development hereby permitted shall be carried out in the materials as so approved.
- (3) The development hereby permitted shall be used as office space ancillary to the use of the main part of the site as a coal merchant's yard and furniture removals business only, and for no other purpose including any use within Class II of the Town and Country Planning Use Classes Order 1972.
- (4) The development hereby permitted shall not be occupied until one car parking space within the site has been provided and it shall be maintained at all times thereafter.
- (5) The proposed shrub planting along the front (north-east) wall of the coal yard shall be carried out in the first planting season following the occupation of the building or the completion of the development, whichever

The reasons for the Council's decision to grant permission for the development subject to the above conditions are:—

- (1) To comply with the requirements of Section 41 of the Town & Country Planning Act, 1971.
- (2) To ensure satisfactory appearance.
- (3) To safeguard and maintain the policies of the local planning authority.
- (4) To ensure proper use of the site and avoid obstruction on adjacent highways.
- (5) In the interests of visual amenity.

NOTE

(1) If the applicant wishes to have an explanation of the reasons for this decision it will be given on request and a meeting arranged if necessary.

(2) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.) The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order.

(3) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Common Council, or on the Council of the county, borough, London borough or county district in which the land is situated, as the case may be, a purchase notice requiring that council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.

(4) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.

Planning Application No. 4/1330/85

is the sooner; any plants which within a period of five years from completion of the development die are removed or become seriously damaged shall be replaced in the next planting season with others of a similar size and species, unless the local planning authority gives written consent to any variation.
