Designation Chief Planning Office

NOTE

(1) If the applicant wishes to have an explanation of the reasons for this decision it will be given on request and a meeting with the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the development is necessary.

(1) If the applicant wishes to have an explanation of the arrangements made by the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment within six months of receipt of the decision.

(2) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the main committee, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with section 38 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of the date of the decision. Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, London, S.W.1, and the Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that the applicant normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which justify the delay in making an appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that the applicant could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been granted by the Secretary of State, subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 and to any directions given under the order.

[illegible]

(4) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the Secretary of State on appeal or on a further appeal, if the claimant is not satisfied with the decision of the Secretary of State. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in section 180 of the Trade and Country Relations Act 1973.
