For the attention of Mr. Gibbs

Dear Sirs,

Re: 25-27 High Street, Markyate

We learned in a telephone conversation with your Office yesterday, that these applications have been recommended for refusal, and are due to be discussed by the committee with this recommendation within the next few days.

Rather than attract a refusal, our client would prefer to engage in further negotiations in the hope of amending the design to one which the officers will find satisfactory.

Therefore, please accept this letter as a notice of withdrawal of the applications. We will be in contact with your Mr. Gibbs to arrange an appointment as soon as possible to discuss the redesign and resubmission.

Yours faithfully,

CLARKE + WHALEN
