NOTE

(1) If the applicant wishes to have an explanation of the reasons for this decision it will be given on request and a meeting arranged if necessary.

(2) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.) The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order.

(3) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Common Council, or on the Council of the county borough, London borough or county district in which the land is situated, as the case may be, a purchase notice requiring that council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.

(4) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.

4/1737/89

- (3) The development hereby permitted shall not be occupied until the arrangements for vehicle parking and circulation shown on Plan 4/1737/89, Drawing 359/104/C shall have been provided, and they shall not be used thereafter otherwise than for the parking and circulation of vehicles.
- (4) The vehicular access to Church Lane shall include the provision of a sight line in a northerly direction only of 2.4 m x 23 m with kerb radius of 4.5 m within which there shall be no obstruction more than 600 mm above carriageway level.
- (5) The vehicular access to Church Lane shall include the provision of a visibility splay in a northerly direction only of 4.5 m x 4.5 measured from the centreline of the accessway to the edge of the carriageway within which there shall be no obstruction to visibility between 600 mm and 2.0 m above the carriageway level.
- (6) No plant, machinery, tank equipment or other apparatus or fixture shall be erected, placed or stationed on the flat roofs of the buildings hereby permitted unless application has been made to and approved by the local planning authority.
- (7) The development hereby permitted shall not be occupied until the details of boundary treatment as shown on Plan 4/1737/89, Drawing 359/152/A for the northern and eastern boundaries of the site have been carried out.
