Dear Sir,

Your application dated 28th November 1980 ..... has been considered under the provisions of Section 53 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971, to determine whether planning permission is required in respect of change of use from builder's yard to sale of building materials and timber at:

Hemel Hempstead,
Herts.

You are hereby given notice that the proposals set out therein do constitute development within the meaning of the said Act, and therefore do not require the permission of the local planning authority.

(a) planning permission must be obtained before any such proposals can be carried out

~~(b) does not require the permission of the local planning authority~~

The grounds for this determination are as follows:

In the opinion of the local planning authority the use proposed is materially different from that already existing in the premises and is therefore

Yours faithfully,

Director of Technical Services.
