For example, one of the most interesting findings of our studies is the relationship between the number of years of experience and the probability of being promoted. The results show that the probability of promotion increases with the number of years of experience, and that this relationship is significant at the 0.01 level. This finding suggests that experience is an important factor in determining promotion rates.

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Minister of Town and Country Planning, and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County Borough or County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with Section 19 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947.
