PUBLIC HEALTH ACT, 1936, & BUILDING BYELAWS

Notice of Passing of Plans.

Sir (or Madam), 2nd October 1964

I HEREBY GIVE YOU NOTICE in pursuance of Sec. 64 of the Public Health Act, 1936, that the Plans, etc., deposited by you at my office on the _____, 19____ for the erection [an extension] [alteration] of Acrefield Fitherden Lane, Nr. Berkhamsted in (at) _____

and executing works / installing fittings in connection therewith for Mr. D. Tscharkowsky were laid before my Council at their Meeting on the 1st day of October 1964, and were duly passed by them.

Note.—This passing of the plans operates as an approval thereof only for the purposes of the requirements of the building byelaws and of those sections of the Public Health Act, 1936, which expressly require or authorise the Council in certain cases to reject plans.

*The development shown on the plans is development in respect of which the _____ have powers under the Town and Country Planning Act, 1962, and the Town and Country Planning General Development Order, 1963. You are therefore advised not to proceed with any works until you have been notified of their decision, which will be communicated to you in due course.

If the work to which the plans relate is not commenced within three years from their deposit the Council may in virtue of section 66 of the Public Health Act, 1936, declare that the deposit of the plans is of no effect.
